

b2B

backpack to BRIEFCASE

DEPARTMENTS: French / Germanic Languages & Literatures / Italian Studies / Slavic Languages & Literatures / Spanish & Portuguese

DATE Monday November 19, 2012

TIME 5:30 pm to 7:30 pm

LOCATION Charbonnel Lounge, located in Elmsley Hall at St. Michael's College, 81 St. Mary Street

No cost to attend / Complimentary snacks and beverages will be provided

Interested in networking with U of T alumni who studied languages and used their education and passion to pursue and achieve successful careers? Attend a panel discussion with alumni from the languages departments. There will be a panel discussion, Q&A, light refreshments and an opportunity for networking.

PANELISTS

Joan Anderson, Assistant Vice-President, Administration, Honda Canada (Department of Germanic Languages & Literatures)

Filomena Frisina, Partner, Gowlings LLP (Department of French)

Carlos Miguel, Teacher, Riverdale Collegiate Institute (Department of Spanish & Portuguese)

Voy Stelmaszynski, Board Solicitor, Ontario Labour Relations Board (Department of Slavic Languages & Literatures)

Emilia Valentini, Principal, Camarra's Pizzeria and Restaurant (Department of Italian Studies)

REGISTER ONLINE AT:

WEBSITE: <http://www.alumni.utoronto.ca/backpack>

Backpack to Briefcase (b2B) is an interdisciplinary learning series that brings together upper year students and alumni in a relaxed setting to share questions, experiences and professional advice. Students learn about different career options while giving alumni the opportunity to interact with students, return to campus, and share stories of success in the professional world.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO
FACULTY OF ARTS & SCIENCE