DESCRIPTION AND COURSE GOALS

The GER 100Y language course is an introductory German course divided into two sections/parts for students with no prior knowledge of the language. Based on a communicative and task-based approach, it is designed to develop proficiency in oral and written communication skills while providing students with knowledge and understanding of the societies and cultures of German-speaking countries.

Students will develop their listening, speaking, reading and writing skills through a variety of stimulating activities. Vocabulary will be presented in the context of culturally significant issues.

Topics cover areas such as introducing and talking about oneself, shopping, telling time and recounting a day, family life, describing and renting an apartment, travel, health and fitness or studying abroad. Additionally, the course will provide students with a foundation in a number of basic grammatical structures and concepts.

Class periods will be devoted mostly to communicative and interactive exercises. In addition to preparation at home, regular class attendance is paramount in order to participate successfully in these activities.

CLASS FORMAT

This class will be entirely conducted in German, and it is expected that you will speak in German during class time from the beginning until the end of class. You will see progress swiftly if you concentrate on speaking German in class all the time. Your instructor will use many partner- and group activities, which are to be completed entirely in German. Don't be afraid to make mistakes! They are part of the learning process. Note that you will not be graded on error-free speech, but on your continuous efforts to speak in German! This course will provide you with a welcoming, respectful, and fast-paced environment for learning German during this academic year.

HOMEWORK

You can expect to spend 4 to 5 hours on homework every week. You will be assigned homework from the textbook, online workbook, and LearnSmart. The online exercises will provide you with ample opportunities before and after class to practice the materials covered. Doing them regularly and carefully will help you prepare for quizzes and tests. No late homework will be accepted without a legitimate excuse. Advice: In order to have a meaningful learning experience, it is important to do the homework assignments on a daily basis, rather than all at once at the end of the week.

TESTS

Five tests (3 in the first half; 2 in the second half) will be given during the year, covering vocabulary, grammar and readings from the course. No make-up quizzes or tests are allowed unless the student has an excused absence. An excused absence is defined as one that has been validated in writing by a physician, surgeon, nurse practitioner, dentist, and clinical psychologist, or a person of authority, e.g. college registrar. If you should fall ill on the day of the test, please send an e-mail before class. A make-up quiz or test must be written no later than a week after the actual assessment date.

ORAL EXAM

At the end of each half, students will have an oral exam either in the form of group oral presentations or interviews with the course instructor. Sufficient class time will be devoted to prepare for this exam which will be graded for general ability to hold a conversation about a set topic (short article about contemporary issues in the German-speaking societies, picture, quotation, etc.), competence and fluency in everyday situations as well the use of acquired vocabulary. Exact times will be arranged with the course instructor.

COMPOSITION

You will write four (4) compositions altogether (2 in the first half, 2 in the second half). The topic and length of the composition will be indicated by your course instructor. Each composition consists of a draft and a final version. In order to receive the full grade you must turn in 2 versions of each composition. Your instructor will return the first version with corrective annotations. You will write the final version of your composition based on these corrections. This is a very important reflective exercise to develop your writing skills and to understand the source of your mistakes. The first version will count 60% and the second 40%. To receive a complete score for each composition assignment, you must submit the marked-up draft with the final version.

Do not have your essays proofread by someone else who is proficient in German! This can be considered plagiarism, as you are submitting someone else's work as your own. Do not use translation software or online translation tools such as Google translate! It will not only be considered cheating, but you will miss a chance to reflect upon and improve your writing skills. The purpose of the composition is to show your ability to use the vocabulary and grammar learned in class in accordance with your level of German. If there is any suspicion whatsoever that you have not written an essay yourself, it will not be accepted. 10% will then be deducted from your overall essay grade. If you reoffend, you will receive an "F" on the essay.

ATTENDANCE

The Department of Germanic Languages and Literatures allows each student a maximum of four unexcused absences (i.e. four hours) per semester. For each subsequent unexcused absence, a student will incur a 10% penalty off the class participation and attendance grade of the course. If a student misses more than 25% of one or any semester (i.e. more than 12 hours) unexcused, the entire course will count as failed with a final grade of 0%. An excused absence is defined as one that has been validated in writing by a physician, surgeon, nurse practitioner, dentist, and clinical psychologist, or a person of authority, e.g. college registrar. Absenteeism inherently has indirect bearing upon all other aspects of the grade weighting. Test material and homework assignments are based on tasks, activities, and information integrated into class time instruction.

INAPPROPRIATE USE OF MOBILE DEVICES/COMPUTERS

Laptops, phones or similar mobile devices must be off during class time! Mobile phones and laptops can be used during class only with the explicit permission of the instructor. No texting is allowed. In case of repeated texting despite warnings from the instructor, the student's participation grade will be lowered automatically by 10%!

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY STATEMENT

Academic integrity is defined as the pursuit of scholarly activity in an open, honest and responsible manner. All students should act with personal integrity, respect other students' dignity, rights and property, and help create and maintain an environment in which all can succeed through the fruits of their efforts. Dishonesty of any kind will not be tolerated in this course. Dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarizing, fabricating information or citations, facilitating acts of academic dishonesty by others, having unauthorized possession of examinations, submitting work of another person or work previously used without informing the instructor, using online translators, or tampering with the academic work of other students. Students who are found to be dishonest will receive academic sanctions and will be reported to the University's Judicial Affairs office for possible further disciplinary sanction. Please visit <http://www.governingcouncil.utoronto.ca/policies/behaveac.htm> for additional information on the code of behavior on academic matters.

DISABILITY ACCESS

The department encourages qualified people with disabilities to participate in its programs and activities and is committed to the policy that all people shall have equal access to programs, facilities, and admissions without regard to personal characteristics not related to ability, performance, or qualifications as determined by university policy or by provincial or federal authorities. If you anticipate needing any type of accommodation in this course or have questions about physical access, the classrooms as well as course materials, please contact Accessibility Services and visit <http://studentlife.utoronto.ca/accessibility> or disability.services@utoronto.ca as soon as possible.
