

Leadership and Community Engagement in German Studies

The Leadership & Community Engagement Award, established by the Department of Germanic Languages and Literatures, recognizes students who have demonstrated exceptional leadership, volunteerism, and dedication to the department and German Studies community. It honors students who have shown initiative and commitment through their leadership in extracurricular activities, service to the German Studies community, and/or meaningful contributions to the German Studies Students' Union (GSSU) and/or the broader community. The award celebrates those who have made a significant impact on the student experience and fostered a strong sense of community within and beyond the department.
