

Excellence in German Studies

The Excellence in German Studies Award is presented to students who have demonstrated outstanding achievement in German Studies. This includes a high level of proficiency in the German language, excellence in course work in German language and topic courses. This award recognizes students who have demonstrated intellectual curiosity, creativity, and critical engagement with German Studies.

- Open to undergraduate students at all levels who are enrolled in German courses and/or programs.
- By application:
 - Personal statement (250 words)
 - Students are invited to submit course work including creative projects
- Deadline for Applications: March 29, 2026
- Applications should be sent electronically to:

Fan Jia
Undergraduate Administrator & Communications Officer
german.undergradadmin@utoronto.ca