

German Language Prize

The German Language Prize is awarded to students who demonstrate exceptional performance and significant progress in German language acquisition through the 100-level courses GER100Y/101H. This award recognizes excellence in speaking, listening, reading, and writing skills, as well as the ability to engage with German cultural topics. Nominees must exhibit a high level of dedication, intellectual curiosity, and a strong work ethic throughout their studies. The recipient will have shown not only exceptional linguistic proficiency but also an active commitment to their language development, demonstrated through participation in classroom discussions, successful completion of coursework, and involvement in extracurricular activities related to German language and culture.

- Open to students enrolled in GER100Y/101H (Introduction to German)
- Nominations by course instructors
 - Statement for the nominated student (150 words)
- Deadline for Applications: March 29, 2026
- Nominations should be sent electronically to:
