

The University of Toronto

GERMAN INTELLECTUAL HISTORY

German 410F / Fall 2020

Instructor: JOHN ZILCOSKY

Departments: German / Comparative Literature

Office: Northrop Frye 214

Office Hours: TBA

Class meets on Wednesdays, 1-3 PM

DESCRIPTION

German intellectual history has provided some of the most important statements in Western culture, from Kant to Hegel to Schopenhauer to Marx to Nietzsche to Freud. The list could go on. In this course, we will examine key moments and themes from German intellectual history in its modern period—from the Enlightenment to the present.

Taught in English and open to students across disciplines.

REQUIRED TEXTS, COURSE REQUIREMENTS, AND WEEKLY SCHEDULE: TBA